Moving on to our next band, Lost Angel. They come from Cleveland, Ohio. The first thing I would have to say is write down this website address that's on your screen now. (computer graphics has lower-third of the screen displaying <http://www.lostangel.com>). If you like heavy metal and some hard drums with killer guitar riffs, then check this sh*t out. I liked pretty much all the songs on the CD. There were a few that I thought were alright, but overall, I loved these guys. I would have to say my favorite song was Hell to pay. The guitars on the song were excellent. Some of the songs they have on this CD are Rock, Gateway to Heaven, Kiana, Comes Around Goes Around, and more. Rock starts off the CD. They pretty much do just that. The CD is pretty professional too. If we can have our cameraman get a close-up of this CD.

(Pause as Camera zooms into CD)

. You can see that the graphics are pretty damn nice for an indie band. The website address once again is lostangel.com. They have MP3's on the net too if you want to check 'em out. Just go to the MP3.com site and they're under the best kind of music genre, of course by that I mean Heavy Metal. The band name once again is Lost Angel.
